

Week 7. DANCING THE EVOLUTIONARY EDGE: CREATIVE, JOYOUS DISCOVERY!

HANDOUT 2: Evolutionary Contract ~ sample

A sample invitation to bring conscious, evolutionary intention and commitment to our relationship with our co-parent, partner, or other significant adult friend.

We commit to:

- Showing up with integrity, and being honest
- Not taking things personally and listening deeply
- Encouraging, supporting and holding each other accountable in our respective paths of growth and awakening
- Taking time to nurture our WE, so that together we can serve our children and the greater Whole more fully
- Being open to constructive, compassionate feedback
- Remaining open, curious and inquisitive, and willing to step into the unknown while embracing ongoing learning, growth and evolution
- Taking full responsibility for our respective selves (being and doing in this world)
- Keep asking: What would Love do?
